

Photographic "cross section" of site showing active oil production areas and former sump and aboveground tank locations.